

Marketing & Communications Committee

The Marketing & Communications Committee is in charge of communicating UNSA's goals, values and core principals through a coherent and effective marketing strategy. It achieves branding and name recognition of UNSA and its various aspects by constructing recognizable and consistent logos, posters, flyers and e-advertisement.

Are you creative, open minded and/or interested in social media? Do you already have some skills in photography and picture editing or you are eager to acquire them? Then join our team!

This is waiting for you:

- Learn about marketing strategies and think of new ones
- Learn how to work with a professional camera
- Learn how to use Adobe Photoshop, InDesign and Illustrator
- Work with different social media channels
- Design flyers, posters merchandise etc.
- Documenting UNSA's year through photos and videos

Head of Committee: Thomas Devine
