

Delegations Committee (Permanent Delegation)

The Permanent Delegation will consist of a dynamic group of students of any age, interest and faculty. This committee prepares you for Model United Nations (MUN) conferences all over Europe. By becoming a member of the Permanent Delegations you will receive intensive training with regards to Model United Nations, diplomacy, public speaking, conflict resolution, negotiations, lobbying and resolution writing. Throughout the year members will also receive the opportunity to attend to simulations sessions, guest lectures, specialized workshops and debating competitions. This is a highly academic committee, which requires dedication and commitment throughout the year. By becoming a member you will gain insight into international relations and multilateral diplomacy. Becoming part of this committee endows you with a very privileged position.

Who are we looking for: 18 – 20 Students for the Permanent Delegation. They must be highly committed individuals who are willing to meet weekly on Thursday at 6:30 PM till 8:30 PM. We welcome passionate beginners, advanced and experts. It is not necessary to have previous MUN experience in order to join the PD, however, it is an advantage to be familiar with the concept.
