

DELEGATIONS COMMITTEE

What do we do?

The Permanent Delegation offers dedicated delegates the opportunity to receive intensive weekly training to develop research, public speaking, debating, critical thinking, writing, negotiation, and cooperation skills to become successful delegates at Model United Nations conferences across Europe. The training involves a variety of workshops and debates. Delegates will have the honour of traveling to conferences representing the delegation and association as well as the university.

Besides the weekly meetings there are also many socials as the PD is a team that trains and travels together so there is plenty of opportunity to bond with like-minded people.

Apart from this, passive members will enjoy the possibility to participate in mock debates and become a part of the External Delegation attending MUN conferences as an irregular team.

Head of the Committee: Koen Kramer

Co-heads of the Committee: Anne Boje, Olivia Mokko

Estimated workload per week: Weekly meetings (3h) + preparation
